Words on Wheels

Words on Wheels is a free direct-delivery outreach program, serving people where they live, learn, work and play. The overall objective of the service is to promote equity of service and enhance the opportunity of access to library amenities.

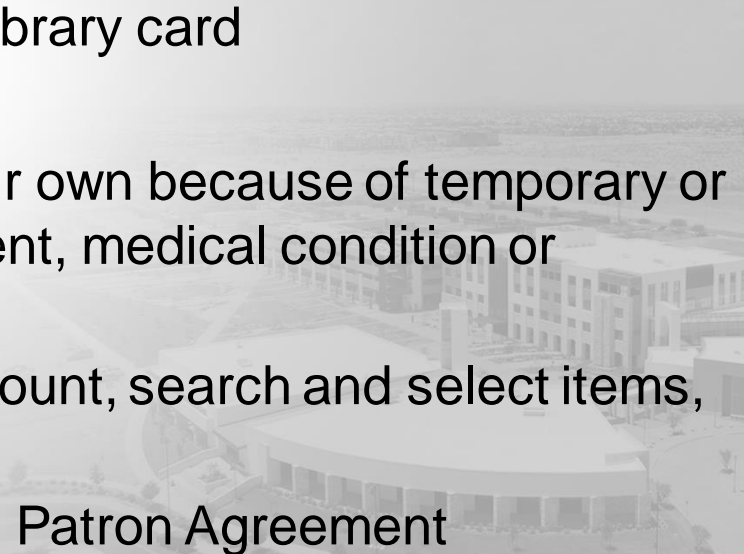

Surprise residents of all ages who are homebound may request up to 5 items at a time for delivery to their residence once a month. Delivered items will be picked up four weeks later.

To be eligible for direct-delivery, patrons must:

- Have an active Surprise Public Library card
 - Live within Surprise city limits
 - Be unable to visit a library on their own because of temporary or long-term illness, injury, impairment, medical condition or disability
 - Be able to manage an online account, search and select items, place holds, etc.
 - Read and sign the online Service Patron Agreement
